The Cross Fine Wine Collection

125 ml Bottle

- (W) Meursault Clos du Cromin, Domaine Patrick Javillier 2013,
Cote de Beaune, Burgundy
- There is the faintly spiced gingerbread aroma of Meursault, the acidity seems more intense than the Auxey – starting a little apart from the rest of the wine but it comes together really well in the mid-palate. Strong finishing too.*
- Villa Beaulieu Coteaux d'Aix-Provence Blanc 2012,
(W) Provence, France
- The Villa Baulieu estate is located within the crater of Provence's only volcano, located in Rognes. The estate has been family owned since its creation in 1576. The nose is characteristically Mediterranean with aromas of ginger, citrus and white peaches.*
- (W) Blanc De Pinot Noir, Impero Fattoria Mancini 2014,
Marche, Italy
- Impressive and distinctive wine, showing spice from the wood and bright red apple/peach aromas. Broad structure in the mouth, balanced and positive, with an herbal freshness. Mancini five generations of wine growers.*
- (R) Gevrey Chambertin Benoit Stehly Domaine Lignier 2014,
Cote d' Or, Burgundy
- Gevrey is very fine and delicate, while being quite full enough. Total purity, with real character - cassis and black berries and also detailed red fruit. 'In general the 2014s are very rich'. Fine balance.*
- (R) Brunello di Montalcino Pian delle Vigne Antinori 2010,
Tuscany, Italy
- Complex and intense aromas: floral notes and fragrant sensations of wild cherries, raspberries, and citrus fruit, then chocolate, toasted tobacco leaves, liquorice and, a perceptible presence of plums, mint, and eucalyptus. Balanced and ample on the palate with full and intense flavours and texture.*
- (R) Donnafugata "Mille e Una Notte" 2010,
Marsala, Italy
- Donnafugata means 'fleeing woman', An intense and inviting bouquet, opens with notes of red fruit (plums and ripe cherries) enriched by fine spicy hints of black pepper and chocolate. The palate is ample, and perfectly reflects the nose, with soft and elegant tannins and a lingering finish.*
- (R) Catena Alta Malbec 2012,
Mendoza, Argentina
- Immediately appealing, this trendsetting Malbec proudly cranks out blackberry and spice aromas that are on the spot. Full and tannic on the palate, but not too fierce, this tastes of bold, earthy plum and black raspberry with savoury notes kicking in. A long, tightly wound finish with well-integrated oak means this will last.*
